Instructions: How to file your agreement to modify Parenting Time (visitation) or Parenting Time and Child Support

- Step 1: Determine whether this court has the authority to hear your case. Either party or the minor children must live in Maricopa County to file for modification in this county:
- A. If the Court Order you want to change is from Maricopa County, Arizona:
 - You will need a copy of the Order to fill out the paperwork. Use your copy of the Order, or get a copy of the Order from court records.
 - B. If the Court Order you want to change is from another county in Arizona:
 - Get a certified copy of the Order you want to change from the other county, AND
 - Bring the certified copy with you when you come to the Clerk of Superior Court to file your court papers, AND
 - Give the certified copy of the Order to the Clerk of Superior Court before filing any additional paperwork, AND
 - The Clerk of Superior Court will file the Order and assign a case number to your new case.
 - C. If the Court Order you want to change is from a state OTHER THAN Arizona:
 - Talk to a lawyer who can tell you what requirements are necessary for you to file for modification in Arizona.
- Step 2: Decide whether you need to change parenting time and child support or just parenting time. In making your decision, you should know that the number of parenting time days the non-custodial parent has may affect the amount of child support he/she must pay.
- You will need to complete a new Child Support Worksheet based on the proposed new parenting time schedule.
 - The Worksheet will indicate whether child support would change, based on the Arizona Child Support Guidelines.
 - If the Worksheet does not show there would be a change under the Guidelines and the parties have not agreed to a change in child support, there is no need to complete the Current Employer Information sheet (CEI) or the Order Stopping Income Withholding Order which are included in the separate “Forms” packet, unless requested by the Court.

Step 3: Complete the forms in this packet IF both parties agree to ask the Court to modify or change an existing Court Order for parenting time or parenting time and child support.

- Have in front of you a copy of the current parenting plan (if you have one), Parenting Time Order, the Child Support Order, and any Income Withholding Order. You will need to look at these documents to complete all the paperwork now.
- Refer to “Planning for Parenting Time: Arizona’s Guide for Parents Living Apart” to help make your new parenting plan. See Step 6 on next page for more information.
- Complete a Child Support Worksheet. Note that you are free to agree to an amount that differs from the amount indicated by the Worksheet, subject to approval of the Court, which is required to act “in the best interests of the children.”

Use the FREE online child support calculator create the Child Support Worksheet available at:

ezCourtForms <https://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/ezcourtforms2/>

See the document DRS12h, in this packet for more information.

Step 4: Complete the Stipulation (Agreement) to Modify the Prior Court Order Regarding Parenting Time or Parenting Time and Child Support.

- In the top left corner of the first page, write in all information requested about the Petitioner/Party A and the Respondent/Party B. Both parties stay “Petitioner/Party A” or “Respondent/Party B” as on the court order you are agreeing to modify. If the court order you want to modify was issued outside Maricopa County and this is the first time you have filed to modify that order in Maricopa County, write in the names of the Petitioner/Party A and the Respondent/Party B as listed on the papers given to you by the Clerk of Superior Court when you registered or transferred the case to this county. Write in your Maricopa County case number.
- Check the box to say whether you want to change parenting time or parenting time and child support.
- Read paragraph 1 (one). Make sure this statement is true.
- Read paragraph 2 (two). Write in the date the Judge signed the Order you want to change, and then write in the name of the Judge who signed the Order you want to change. Follow the instructions in paragraph two about attaching a copy of the Order.
- Read paragraph 3 (three). Make sure this statement is true.
- ALL Parties Must Sign this Agreement. That means:

1. BOTH parents must sign in front of the Clerk of Superior Court at the Filing Counter or a Notary, and
2. If the State of Arizona (DES/DCSE) is involved in your case, a representative of the Arizona Attorney General's office, DCSE, must ALSO sign before you turn in the papers.

Step 5: Complete the Order Modifying Parenting Time and/or Child Support.

- Write in all information requested about the Party A and the Party B, the case number, etc. as on the Agreement to Modify.
- THE COURT FINDS: Paragraph 3 (three). Write in the name(s) of the minor child(ren), their birth date(s) and their age(s).
- THE COURT ORDERS:
Paragraph 1: Write in the date the court order you want to change was signed by the Judge.

Paragraph A: Parenting Time. Make sure you and the other party fill out, sign and attach a Parenting Plan.

Paragraph B: Child Support. If you are asking to have child support changed, check the box in front of "Child Support." Then check the box to say whether mother or father will pay child support, and then write in the amount of child support that person will pay each month. If you both agree the amount of child support should be different ("deviate") from the amount indicated by the Child Support Worksheet, write in WHY in the space provided. You will also need to complete and submit a child support worksheet when deviating.

Paragraph C: Medical, Dental, Vision Care Insurance, Payments and Expenses.

If you are asking for a change in which parent provides insurance, check the box to indicate whether mother or father will provide medical, dental, and/or vision care insurance. Then write in what percentage each parent will pay of the uninsured expenses.

Paragraph D: Tax Deductions. If you are asking for a change in which parent gets to claim the federal income tax deduction for one or more of the children, fill in the information necessary to indicate the desired change here.

Paragraph E: Other Orders. If there are other matters you both agree on that you want the Court to make an order in your case, write these in the space provided.

Judge/Commissioner's Signature and Court Date: Leave this space blank.

- You and the other party must sign the Order in front of a Clerk of Superior Court or a Notary Public. If either party is represented by an attorney, the attorney must sign as well. If the State of Arizona is involved in your case because of child support issues, a representative of the Attorney General (DCSE) must also sign (both the Agreement and the Order).

Step 6: Complete the other necessary documents:

- Parenting Plan.

Refer to “Planning for Parenting Time: Arizona’s Guide for Parents Living Apart” to help make your new parenting plan. The Guide is available for purchase at the Law Library Resource Center locations, or may be viewed online and downloaded for free from the state courts’ web page at: <https://www.azcourts.gov/selfservicecenter/Booklets.aspx>

Hints to help you complete the Parenting Plan:

1. State your Parenting Time arrangements as clearly as possible. For example,
Alternating weekends from after work on Friday, at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m.
 2. Avoid vague or unclear statements such as “will share, will divide, or will decide later.” These statements may result in future disputes related to different interpretations. Although flexibility and mutual agreement is encouraged, the document must be specific to be legally enforceable.
- Child Support Worksheet. Use the FREE online child support calculator to produce the Child Support Worksheet that must accompany this Agreement. See the instruction document DRS12h in this packet for more information.

STEP 3: GO TO the Clerk of Superior Court’s filing counter.

You may file your papers from 8am to 5pm, Monday through Friday, at any of the following Superior Court locations:

Central Court Building
201 West Jefferson, 1st Floor

FEES: There are filing fees and service fees for all court actions such as filing petitions, forms, responses, requests, motions, objections, etc.). A list of current fees is available from the Law Library Resource Center and on the Clerk of Superior Court's website.

An Agreement (or "Stipulation") is a filing by BOTH parties. There will also be a substantial "appearance fee" due from the Respondent, if he or she has not previously "made an appearance", that is filed a response or other papers and paid a filing fee in this case.

If you cannot afford the filing fee, you may request a deferral (payment plan) when you file your papers with the Clerk of the Court. Deferral Applications are available at no charge from the Law Library Resource Center.

STEP 4: Make sure you get back the following from the Clerk

ALL Sets of copies with the Clerk's stamp on them (which shows they are "conformed" copies – meaning they are duplicates of papers filed with the Court), then:

- Take Set 2 of the documents to the Judge assigned to your case along with the 2 self-addressed, stamped envelopes (from Step 2).
- If you are not sure which Judge is assigned to your case, have your case number at hand and call Family Department at 602-506-1561 to ask.
- Hand-deliver the documents as indicated below (depending on the location of the court facility at which you choose to file):

Central Court Building
201 West Jefferson, 3rd floor
Phoenix, Arizona 85003
(Deliver to Family Department)

Southeast Court Complex
222 East Javelina Avenue, 1st floor
Mesa, Arizona 85210
(Deliver to Court Administration)

Northwest Court Complex
14264 West Tierra Buena Lane
Surprise, Arizona 85374
(Deliver to Judge's in-box)

Northeast Court Complex
18380 North 40th Street
Phoenix, Arizona 85032
(Deliver to Judge's in-box)

What the Court may do:

- Grant the relief you requested;
- Schedule a hearing for you and the other party if the Judge needs additional information;
- Return your paperwork because you did not show good reason for the change requested or the paperwork was incomplete; OR
- Enter other orders the Judge thinks proper.

STEP 5: WAIT for the Court to let you know whether the Order was signed or the matter was set for a hearing. If a hearing is scheduled, you will receive written notice of when and where to appear (date, time, and location).

If you do not hear from the Court within 3 weeks, you may call the office of the Judge assigned to your case to ask about the status of your paperwork. Note that you will not be able to speak to the Judge or Commissioner and court staff cannot tell you what was decided.

REMINDER! Did you provide two self-addressed, stamped envelopes as described in STEP 2 and 4, above.

3. A.R.S. § 25-401 defines two different types of legal decision-making. “Joint legal decision-making” means both parties share decision-making and neither party’s rights or responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the court or the parties in the final judgment or order. “Sole legal decision-making” means one party has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child. In this case, the Court has awarded joint legal decision-making to the parties.
4. It furthers the best interests of the minor child(ren) for this Court to enter the following school-specific order that reflects relevant provisions under the Parenting Plan. This order serves to supplement, but not modify or replace, the provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan. If there is a conflict between this order and the current Parenting Plan, the Parenting Plan controls. For purposes of this order, the terms apply equally to schools, pre-schools, and institutional childcare providers.
5. This order is binding upon the parties, who are responsible for complying with its terms and the terms in the Parenting Plan. It is not binding on a school but is provided as guidance for the child(ren)’s schools.

Based thereon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Delivery to School.

The parties are required to provide a copy of this order to the minor child(ren)’s school(s).

2. Joint Legal Decision-making.

The parties have been awarded joint legal decision-making. As it relates to this Education Order, legal decisions include school selection, enrollment/withdrawal, and special services (IEP/504 Plans). In the event the parties cannot agree (select appropriate box):

Joint Decision-making: Neither party is entitled to any greater decision-making authority. No change can be made, nor any action taken, unless the parties agree or a court order resolves the issue.

Joint Decision-making with a party having either “Final” or “Presumptive” Authority: Subject to the terms set forth in the Parenting Plan, decisions will be made by (indicate which party has “presumptive” or “final” authority):

Petitioner/Party A Respondent /Party B

3. School Selection.

Enrollment of the minor child(ren) in a particular school is subject to the school's policies or rules, space availability, enrollment restrictions set by the school or school district or its authorizer (if a charter school), and state law. A party may submit enrollment documentation to the school of choice solely for the purpose of reserving the minor child(ren)'s place at the school. Neither party is restricted from selecting their preference of school for open enrollment purposes.

4. Special Services.

If the minor child(ren) is/are eligible for or being considered for a 504 Plan, an Individualized Education Program (IEP), an Individualized Service Plan (ISP), or other special services:

- An evaluation as to the minor child(ren)'s eligibility for special services shall proceed so long as at least one party consents.
- Both parties are entitled to attend all meetings with school officials that parents are permitted to attend.
- Both parties are authorized to have access to all special services records and testing results.
- Upon completion of any evaluation or assessments, if there is no agreement between the parties regarding the provision of special education and related special services, the decision of how to proceed must be decided in accordance with the legal decision-making orders of the court.

5. Parenting Time and Child Pick-Up.

The school should not use the parenting schedule as a basis to deny either party access to their minor child(ren), nor may either party instruct the school to limit contact, unless otherwise ordered. Each party may pick up the minor child(ren) from school and each may authorize other individuals to pick up the minor child(ren), unless there are limitations under the terms of the current Parenting Plan or another court order.

6. Contact Information.

Each party's home address, e-mail, cell phone and any other contact information must be provided to the school and listed by the school as the contact information for the minor child(ren). Additional emergency contacts may be listed, but in the event of a dispute between the parties, the school must list any person requested by either party until the parties reach an agreement or secure a court order to the contrary. In the event of an emergency, either party may make decisions for the minor child(ren)'s immediate care.

7. Access to School Grounds.

Subject to the policies of the school, or any provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan or other order of the court, there are no restrictions on either party's right to participate in school activities or events, or engage in any parent volunteer activities, that parents are generally permitted to participate in.

8. Access to School Records and Parent Portal.

Both parties are entitled to equal access to the minor child(ren)'s school records. Neither party may restrict the other party's access to information. Further, each party is individually responsible for contacting the school and requesting to be included on any mailing or distribution list.

Both parties are entitled to access the school's student information system or online parent portal(s) (e.g., ParentVUE, Google Classroom, Infinite Campus, etc.). Unless the school allows each party to have an individual login account, the parties must create a joint login ID and password, which will not be changed or modified without the consent of the other party.

9. Parent-Teacher Conferences.

Each of the parties has equal right to confer with teachers and counselors concerning the minor child(ren)'s education and other activities. The parties may request joint or separate parent-teacher conferences, and the school may or may not accommodate the request.

10. Future Litigation.

The parties must make best efforts to agree upon the admission of school records or communications without the need for foundational testimony or agree upon the submission of an affidavit from the custodian of records to authenticate the records in lieu of testimony, whenever possible. If a teacher or school official is required for substantive testimony, the scheduling of such testimony will, when possible, be set at a time that is least disruptive to the school, its other students, and its operations. Presumptively, accommodations will be made to allow virtual appearances by the teacher or school official.
